Sub: Information sought under Right to Information Act, 2005

Dear Applicant,

Please refer to your RTI dated 22-02-2021, received by us on 23-02-2021 vide RTI (7678), on the above subject.

This RTI application, seeks the following information regarding the ad hoc payment on death of an employee during Covid 19 pandemic announced by Air India vide notice no. HPD02 /COVID/2020/423.

Query 1: What is the maximum time limit within which the announced ad hoc compensation (an immediate succour) payment must be disbursed to the grieved family members, who are also the nominees to such a compensatory payment as filed by the deceased employee in a very clear manner along with the share distribution.

Query 2: And in case, when the above deadline is crossed due to unnecessary delay caused on the dealing officials part, despite a clear nomination filed by the deceased employee available in the official records. A) How much of a compensation will be paid for creating the uncalled for and unwarranted long delay of more than half a year in disbursing the ad hoc payment. B) What action will be taken against the officials , on whose end the unnecessary delay has been done in disbursement of the ad hoc compensation payment, an immediate succour meant for the entitled nominees , which was not and is not being given , resulting in a lot of mental harassment of grieving family members , resulting in them being debt ridden ,resulting in the deceased employee children having to lose an academic year along with many other things , What sort of action will be taken against the concerned officials whose incapacity to perform his / her / their own professional duties has resulted in such adversaries of the family members

Reply 1&2: The Applicant has sought information in the form of explanations, reasons and questions which do not fall within the meaning of 'information' in terms of Section 2(f) of the RTI Act, 2005. Hence information cannot be provided.
